

SENIORS 80 YEARS OF AGE AND OLDER AND INDIGENOUS (FIRST NATIONS, MÉTIS, INUIT) 65 YEARS OF AGE AND OLDER AND ELDERS, IT'S TIME TO BOOK YOUR COVID-19 VACCINATION.

BOOK YOUR COVID-19 VACCINE APPOINTMENT

Eligible seniors in the Vancouver Coastal Health region, can call the toll-free appointment booking line starting March 8.

To facilitate access to as many eligible residents as possible, the following age groups are invited to call the appointment phone line as follows:

Seniors in Richmond, Vancouver, North Vancouver and West Vancouver

- Call Starting March 8: (Vaccinations starting March 15)
Seniors 90 years of age and older (born in 1931 or earlier) and Indigenous (First Nations, Métis, Inuit) people 65 years of age and older (born in 1956 or earlier) and Elders
- Call Starting March 15: (Vaccinations starting March 22)
Seniors 85 years of age and older (born in 1936 or earlier)
- Call Starting March 22: (Vaccinations starting March 29)
Seniors 80 years of age and older (born in 1941 or earlier)

Seniors in Sunshine Coast, Powell River, Whistler, Squamish and Pemberton

- Call Starting March 8: (Vaccinations starting March 15)
Seniors 80 years of age and older (born in 1941 or earlier) and Indigenous (First Nations, Métis, Inuit) people 65 years of age and older (born in 1956 or earlier) and Elders

APPOINTMENT BOOKINGS: Call the VCH vaccine appointment booking line at 1-877-587-5767 based on your age group. The phone line will be open daily from 7 am - 7 pm.

Information on VCH vaccination clinics: Visit vch.ca

Clinical questions: Please speak with your family physician, nurse practitioner, or call 8-1-1

Questions about COVID-19: Call 1-888-COVID19 (1-888-268-4319) or visit gov.bc.ca/covid19

For up-to-date information on the vaccine rollout, please visit vch.ca.